Management / Leadership

Currently, I am working as an Engineering Manager of Android dev and QA teams. My responsibilities are:

- Manage developers and QA engineers of mobile team (1-on-1, performance reviews, etc.)
- Provide technical and architecture decisions in projects (applications and internal SDKs)
- Host Scrum ceremonies
- Hands-on coding in certain cases
- Setup and maintain DevOps infrastructure for mobile projects
- Contribute to the roadmap and UX decisions
- Align priorities in the roadmap according to marketing, product and technical requests
- Estimate time, risks and costs
- Contribute to the product analytics, SDK integrations to analyse UX, revenue, etc.

Android Development

My experience in Android Development started in 2015 from local startup. I have been working mostly in product companies, but also had an experience with outsource companies.

PRIMARY TECH STACK

Kotlin Jetpack Compose MVVM Coroutines Flow Room (SQLite) Jetpack Datastore
Hilt Ktor Github Gitlab Firebase Amplitude JUnit Mockk

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Java Flutter Kotlin multiplatform RxJava View/XML MVP Dagger 2 Realm DB VPN
Wireguard Bitbucket Image processing Video processing Retrofit GraphQL Gson
Lottie Espresso

DevOps

Technologies I use or have an experience to setup mobile CI/CD:

- Ansible
- Github Actions
- Gitlab Pipelines
- Bitbucket Pipelines
- Jenkins
- TeamCity
- Firebase App Distribution
- Firebase TestLab
- AppCenter
- Play Developer API

Teaching

When I was learning programming languages, I found myself in teaching. It was easy for me to explain difficult topics to others. So, I started working as a personal mentor. This hobby became a work in class with a group of students. I have spent a few years working as a teacher of Java and Android Development.
